

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, April 15 1704

London, April 14. To day arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 22.

Milan, April 5.

THE 3d instant the D. of Vendome pass'd the Po over his Bridge at Casal, and caus'd 200 Horse to advance, who attack'd one of the Enemies Guards of Horse that was posted within a Mile of the Bridge. Colonel Paul Diack came out of his Quarters, with some of his Hussars, to assist the Enemy; his Horse was kill'd, and he not being able to get from under him was taken Prisoner; after which our Men retir'd. The Grand Prior was to attack Revere to day. 'Tis reported the Princes of Mirandola have made a Treaty with the King, in which they engage themselves to use their best Efforts to put the Town of that Name into the Possession of the 2 Crowns. The King allows them a Pension of 20000 Crowns per Annum.

Turin, April 4. The 2d of this Month the Cavalry that was in this City, march'd out early in the Morning for Suza, and was follow'd the same day by 2 Battallions of Infantry. His Royal Highness has declar'd he will go to Savoy in a few days. 160 French Prisoners, of which 10 are Horse Officers, are brought hither, they were taken at Chaumont and Lannebourg. They write from Asti, that in less than a Month 400 of the French Horses have died there, of a new unknown Distemper. The Town of Nice being provided with a sufficient Garrison, 2 Regiments that were marching from Coni towards Nice are countermanded, and are returning into their Garrison. The French in attempting to pass the Var, have been repuls'd with loss, 50 of them being taken Prisoners and conducted to Mondovi. A Skirmish has pass'd at Villanova di Montferrat, in which a Colonel of Imperial Hussars was taken; and General Vaubonne had been made a Prisoner likewise, if he had not shot dead one of the Enemies who had hold of him. However, the Hussars had the better of the Action, and afterwards plunder'd Villanova and carried the Inhabitants Prisoners to the Imperial Quarters at Trino and Crescentino. The Count of Prela Doria is made Gouverour of Vercelli, and the Regiment of Dragoons which he commanded is given to the Marquess of Andorno, Son of the Marquess of Parella. To day 2 more Battallions of Infantry set forwards for Suza, thence to march into Savoy.

Turin, April 8. A Detachment of French, of the Garrisons of Montafia, Passeranno, and other Places, advanc'd on the 4th towards Butigliera; whereupon the Peasants ran to Arms, and defended themselves so well till Night, that the Enemy was oblig'd to retire. The 6th 3000 Pioneers came hither, and are sent part to Verrue and Ivrea, and the rest to Vercelli, to work on the Fortifications of those Places, and to cast up a Line to cover the Sesia. The same day, some Militia Troops were commanded to keep Garrison in our Citadel, and the Regular Troops were drawn out of it, and are gone by Water to Crescentino; and a Regiment of Dragoons, Vaudois, are on the March thither by Land. It being discover'd, that the Inhabitants of Villanova di Montferrat held Intelligence with the French, the Conspirators were punish'd exemplarily; the 5th instant, at Trino, whither they were brought by the Germans: 8 were impal'd alive, 12 hang'd, and 60 condemn'd to the Gallies. They confess'd they had laid a Plot with the French, to cut the Throats of the Hussars that were quarter'd in that Place. A Courier has brought Advice from Savoy, that Mr. de Blagnac is advanc'd with a Detachment of his Royal Highness's Troops to St. Jean in the Morienne, and that attempting to pass the Bridge of Maffei, they were oppos'd by 2 Battallions of the Enemies; but after a sharp Dispute, the latter were oblig'd to retire.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 22.

Vienna, April 9. We have certain Advice, that since General Heister publish'd a general Pardon, almost all the Inhabitants of the Baillages and Counties of the Lower Hungary on this side the Danube, that voluntarily or involuntarily had joyn'd the Rebels, have laid down their Arms and taken a new Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor. General Heister march'd to other day to attack Count Caroli anew, who had rallied his Horse near St. Martin, but upon his approach the Count retir'd, and repass'd the Danube near Tetuar, with his Troops and about 4 Waggon's loaded with Baggage and Booty taken in the open Country on this side that River. General Heister is at present with the Body he commands, at Rischbeio. Yesterday a Major General arriv'd here Post from Croatia, with the News, that General Heister the younger having pass'd the Drave with 2000 Men, surpriz'd the advanc'd Guard of a Body of 10000 Rebels that lay not far from that River; after which he sent to the Officer that commanded them, to acquaint him that he was there with 10000 Men, and that if they did not submit without delay, he had Orders to fall upon them, and to give no Quarrer; They were so terrify'd at this Message that they all laid down their Arms, and accepted the Pardon offer'd them by the said General, in the Emperor's Name.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 22.

Nismes, April 5. This Week the Camisars have kill'd several Persons whom they found at work in the Neighbourhood of this Town. The 1st of this Month we had like to have had a Sedition in 2 or 3 Places of this City; and a Person was seiz'd who was said to be the chief Ringleader, and carried into the Fort. The next day several People were taken up; First they seiz'd mean Fellows, next Citizens of a middle Rank, and will end with the Richest. Within these 3 days above 100 Persons have been clap'd up in the Fort. An Agreement is made with some Masons who have undertaken at the Charge of the Town, to build a new Wall that shall take in all our Suburbs, from whence the Camisars used to receive part of their Subsistence; 2000 Loaves were lately found in a Baker's House, and were design'd for them.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated April 14.

Paris, April 14. The Pope's Nuncio having lately desir'd the King, in his Holiness's Name, to reestablish the Duke of Modena in his Dominions; his Majesty answer'd he would, as soon as the Emperor should re-instate the Elector of Cologne in his. Letters from Plafencia of the 26th of March advise, that the King of Spain arriv'd there the 19th, and had staid there to perform the Devotions of the Holy Week, in the Cathedral; That on Easter-day he assist'd at the solemn Mass celebrated by Signior Zondadari the Pope's Nuncio; and that he would proceed thence the 28th on his Journey to the Frontiers of Portugal.

William

William Egon Landgrave of Furstemburg, Cardinal, Bishop of Strasburg, Abbot of St. Germain des Prez, &c. died here the 10th instant, in the 75th Year of his Age.
